Satisfy the conditions of this offer

To satisfy the conditions of this offer, you must:

Provide evidence of successful completion of your Bachelor of Laws.

To find out how to provide this evidence please view instructions to upload documents. Once you have met the conditions set out above, the University will send you an unconditional offer letter, which will include instructions on how to accept your offer.

It is also important to note that if you undertake any further study between now and accepting your offer you must declare it because your offer will need to be reassessed based on the additional study.

If you do not declare the further study and it is subsequently discovered via any means, including an advanced standing application, your application will be reassessed based on that study which could result in your offer being withdrawn and enrolment cancelled.

Note that this offer will lapse on 20 July 2020 so you must respond before then. You can register your intention to accept or decline this offer via the student portal or the application portal. If you wish to change this application to a later commencement date, please apply to defer.
